Imagine Your Story

Early Readers (0-5 yrs)

Every day that you read, write the book titles on the reading log. Aim for two or more books per day. It's okay to repeat titles! Kids learn and thrive in repetition and predictability.

Elementary (entering 1st-6th grades)

Read every day! Aim for 30 minutes or more every day to keep your brain happy and healthy. Write on the reading log approximately how many minutes you read each day. When in doubt, the reading counts: whether in print or digital, books, audiobooks, and magazines all count as reading.

Teens (entering 7th-12th grades)

Read every day! Aim for 30 minutes or more every day to keep your brain happy and healthy. Write on the reading log approximately how many minutes you read each day. When in doubt, the reading counts: whether in print or digital, books, audiobooks, and magazines all count as reading. Reading for school and pleasure reading both count.
